Completed Feb 18, 2016

DO WHAT YOU ARE

1. Intro 2. Take assessment 3. View results

Your personality type is: ENTP

Extraverts prefer to:

- focus their attention outward
- work on a variety of tasks
- seek out and interact with many people
- work at a rapid pace
- talk about their ideas to think them through

Intuitives prefer to:

- focus on "what on could be" rather than "what is"
- work with theories and ideas
- consider novel ideas and new possibilities
- use their imaginations

Thinkers prefer to:

- analyze problems logically
- weigh pros and cons, and make decisions objectively
- be tough negotiators
- be motivated by achievement

Perceivers prefer to:

- work in flexible and changing conditions
- respond to problems as they arise
- have fun during their work
- work with fewer rules and procedures

Your Resources

People like you are friendly, creative and confident. Since you love to talk and tell engaging stories, you have lots of friends and acquaintances and are pretty easy to get to know...

- Artistic: 4
- Social: 5
- Enterprising: 0
- Conventional: 0

Your strongest interests are in green. You can think about your interests as work activities you like to do. Your interests can help you find occupations you might like to explore. The more an occupation meets your interests, the more likely it is to be satisfying and rewarding to you.

Are you ready to explore the occupations that match your interests? Just click the button below.

Definitions

Realistic: Realistic occupations frequently involve work activities that include practical, hands-on problems and solutions. They often deal with plants, animals, and real-world materials like wood, tools, and machinery. Many of the occupations require working outside, and do not involve a lot of paperwork or working closely with others.

Investigative: Investigative occupations frequently involve working with ideas, and require an extensive amount of thinking. These occupations can involve searching for facts and figuring out problems mentally.

Artistic: Artistic occupations frequently involve working with forms, designs and patterns. They often require self-expression and the work can be done without following a clear set of rules.

Social: Social occupations frequently involve working with, communicating with, and teaching people. These occupations often involve helping or providing service to others.

Enterprising: Enterprising occupations frequently involve starting up and carrying out projects. These occupations can involve leading people and making many decisions. Sometimes they require risk taking and often deal with business.

Conventional: Conventional occupations frequently involve following set procedures and routines. These occupations can include working with data and details more than with ideas. Usually there is a clear line of authority to follow.
